Spotlight on Milford

Historic Charm Meets Convenience

Why Milford is a favorite for NYC transplants:

- Just a 90-minute drive from New York City
- Quaint downtown featuring art galleries, boutiques, and cozy cafés
- Strong community atmosphere with year-round events and festivals
- Proximity to Delaware Water Gap offering endless outdoor recreation

Milford combines accessibility with small-town appeal, making it perfect for those who still need occasional access to the city.

Spotlight on Hawley

A Lake Town with Resort-Like Living

Lakeside Paradise

Home to Lake Wallenpaupack, offering 52 miles of shoreline for boating, fishing, swimming, and waterfront dining experiences year-round.

Vibrant Downtown

Explore charming shops, farm-to-table restaurants, and antique markets that blend modern amenities with historic character.

Luxury Amenities

Enjoy proximity to Woodloch Resort and The Lodge at Woodloch, offering world-class spa services and recreation facilities.

Spotlight on Honesdale

Small-Town Heart with a Creative Soul

Perfect for families, makers, and remote workers who value:

- Award-winning Wayne Highlands School District known for academic excellence
- Safe, walkable streets with historic architecture and community pride
- Thriving local economy with independent shops, craft breweries, and regular festivals
- Creative community of artists, musicians, and entrepreneurs
- Easy access to Prompton State Park for mountain biking, hiking, and fishing

Known as the birthplace of the American Railroad, Honesdale blends its rich history with a forward-thinking creative community.

Spotlight on Lake Ariel
