| 1 Brine
Follow their socials for the moving $2 oyster happy hour. Order the Power Tower. | 2 Sea Level Oyster Bar
Order something from the sea and remember where you are. | 3 Michael's Harborside
There is a sailboat bar on the first floor. That detail alone earns it. | 4 Tuscan Sea Grill
Works for a first date and a tenth anniversary with equal grace. | 5 The Port Tavern
Sports on the screens, good draft, no pretension. Sometimes exactly right. | 6 Port Vida Mexican Cantina
Newburyport's most reliably good margarita. The food keeps up. | 7 Black Cow
A decade of burgers, crab cakes and scallops. Consistency is underrated. | 8 The Grog
Paper napkins. Legendary lobster bisque. Fifty years of getting it right. | 9 Mission Oak Grill
A converted church. Upscale without announcing it. | 10 Bar25 NBPT
Inventive, genuinely different. Doing things nobody else is attempting. | 11 Thirsty Whale
Great drafts, smash burger that has no business being this good. | 12 Angie's Food and Diner
The definitive Newburyport breakfast. Don't rush it. |
| 13 NU Kitchen
Fresh without being worthy. Lunch that feels like lunch. | 14 The Coffee Factory
Best dark roast on State Street. The morning sorts itself out. | 15 Best of British
Clotted cream, Barbour jackets, a royal guardsman at the door. | 16 The Goat
Waterfront whiskey bar. Live country music. Burgers worth the Tuesday night out. | 17 Grand Trunk Wine & Cheese
Come in for one thing, leave with six. Cheese worth the detour. | 18 The Paddle Inn
Tiki cocktails, Thai fusion, espresso martini. Arrive at five. | 19 Joy Nest
Bangkok street food meets jazz speakeasy in the Tannery. Order the crisply Basil Duck. Stay for the Wednesday jazz. | 20 The Angry Donut
Dark chocolate sea salt. Maple bacon. Come early. The queue is justified. | 21 The Poynt
Waterfront bar, good cocktails, apple cider donuts at brunch worth planning around. | 22 Starboard Galley
Chowder, steamers, lobster rolls, deck seating on the river. Proud of it. | 23 Park Lunch
Fried haddock with a near-religious following. Bring your college pennant. | 24 Brown Sugar
