Caldwell offers a year-round lineup of community-driven events that celebrate its local pride, culture, and small-town warmth. Summer evenings come alive at Indian Creek Plaza with, food trucks, artisan vendors, and a festive atmosphere in the heart of downtown. The Farm to Fork Market on Tuesday nights fills the plaza with local goodies, and family-friendly entertainment all season long. In September, the city hosts the Indian Creek Festival, featuring kayak races down the creek. And when winter arrives, Caldwell transforms into a glowing destination with its famous Winter Wonderland, which draws visitors from across the Treasure Valley for skating, photos with Santa, and cozy nights downtown.
