Your CENTRAL FLORIDA WITH DALIAH

Family . Community . Home

Hi Friends & Neighbor,

As we step into the last stretch of summer and settle into the back-to-school routine, it's easy to get caught up in schedules, assignments, and responsibilities. Yet this season also reminds us of the importance of slowing down to enjoy the simple things—a community event, a night market, or even a walk through the park with family.

This week offers numerous opportunities across Central Florida to recharge, reconnect, and create memories without breaking the budget. Let's embrace these little moments of joy as we balance school focus with family fun.

Here's what's happening in Central Florida this weekend!

Real Estate Tip of the Week:

Consider End-of-Summer Opportunities – Late August often sees fewer buyers actively searching, which can mean less competition and more room for negotiation. Whether you're thinking of buying or selling, this can be a smart time to start a conversation about your next move before the busier fall season arrives.
