Plan your home search

A practical guide with Christine Smith

Opening Doors for You

Use these pages to organize your priorities, compare homes, and collect questions for your next conversation with Christine. Start wherever you are in the process.

01 Start with your priorities

A few clear notes can make your next conversation more useful.

Areas I want to explore

My preferred timing

What may affect my move

Must-have features

Nice-to-have features

02 Build a shortlist

Browse at teamlunde.com/listing. Save the listing link and jot down what you want to confirm.

A useful reminder

A home may appear in more than one MLS feed. Ask Christine to confirm availability and details.

Turn the page for a home comparison table and conversation notes.

04 Make the next conversation count

- Which details about these homes need another look?
- What should we ask before arranging a showing?
- Which priorities have changed after comparing homes?
- What is the next step, and when should we reconnect?
